...for people and the planet

greener greetings

Holiday good tidings don't have to mean bad news for the planet—check out these 100 percent recycled options:

- Simple and stylish, Jonesy cards ① are customizable, allowing you to include personal printed messages or create your own illustrations ($16 for 8, jonesy.ca).
- Pear Tree Greetings come in dozens of sizes and styles, including ones you can hang on the tree ($31 for 24 deer cards ②, $35 for 24 ornament cards ⑤, peartreegreetings.com).
- Each card from Botanical PaperWorks ③ contains plantable materials that grow into wildflowers or herbs, like these paper mittens ($20 for 8, botanicalpaperworks.com).
- Graphic designers from around the world compete in monthly challenges to create Minted designs ④ ($70 for 25, minted.com).

- Send used cards to the Recycled Card Program at St. Jude's Ranch for Children. Kids turn old cards into new ones to earn spending money and learn entrepreneurship skills. (stjudesranch.org)
